Sadly we have to record 5 deaths in the community over the past month.

Jim Baker's family is sad to report that he passed away in late January aged 92 years of age, and had a tremendous attendance at his funeral in Much Birch where he lived for 56 years. Having been married to Joyce for 72 years and lost her almost 2 years ago to the day, he is now at peace having missed her so much.

Born in 1924 Jim worked locally in farming, until joining the 70th Anti Tank Artillery (then latterly the Ulster Rifles) aged 18. In this year he also married his childhood sweetheart Joyce – the family have a photograph of them sitting side by side on a school bench at Hentland School!

After leaving the Army Jim returned to farming with Joyce who was often by his side working on the farm, he finally settled at Long Orchard fruit Farm in Much Birch working initially for Sir James and Anthony Achesson where he was Farm Foreman. Retiring at the age of 65 the farm was now owned by Geoff and Roz Perry. Jim gave way to his son Michael in 1989. But he continued to work and keep involved on the Farm – often working 6 ½ days a week!

Always with Joyce and all of their five children at his side on the farm at various times!

Geoff Perry sold the farm to Frank Green who then rented land to Anthony and Christine Snell at Windmill Hill where Jim continued to help on both farms until the age of 80 years old. Jim always loved his work and could not understand others who did not share the same values. He and Joyce continued to live very happily at their original home on Court Farm visited daily by much of the family.

The funeral service of Joan Dillon erstwhile of King's Thorn, was held at the Crematorium on 9th. February. She was 84 years of age and many of her grandchildren took part in the service.

Joan was born in March 1932 in Eau Withington, Hereford. She attended Sutton School and then St Paul's Tupsley, which she enjoyed and was a very studious pupil. After leaving school she first worked for accountants Thorne Widgery, and then for the builders Charlie Honey at Holmer. This is where she met her future husband Tim Dillon. They married in September 1957, and in November 1958 Sharon was born. Initially living in a flat near to her family home, they soon bought a plot of land at Kings Thorn and built Glen View. John was born in 1960 and Sue in 1966.

Her many interests included dancing, she was very accomplished and gained Gold awards in Ballroom and Latin, many evenings were spent at Park Hall Ballroom enjoying the big bands that played there in the sixties, seventies and early eighties. She helped locally with fundraising for Little Birch Village Hall, running many Country and Western Evenings with friends in the village and served on the Village Fete Committee for some years. She was an excellent seamstress, making and altering clothes for many, and making numerous wedding and bridesmaids dresses.

In 1984 they moved to Mount Skippet near the top of the Callow, and then in 1998 moved back along the road to Jabiru (the site of Wilf Taylors old garage), and then a few years later moved a little further up the road to Westerley.

Joan joined the WI and delivered Meals on Wheels for many years with her friends, the late Sylvia Atkinson and Jill Richards, erstwhile of Little Birch Road, King's Thorn.

At this time Tim and Joan enjoyed many holidays travelling widely, she also took up painting as a hobby which she thoroughly enjoyed and was very good.

After Tim died, Joan – after some 53 years in the community – moved into Hereford to be near to Sharon and husband John, with granddaughter Louise and her family also living not far away. She travelled less, but still enjoyed time away with her sister Pat and husband Derek, including many weeks at the caravan she bought at

Little Birch & Aconbury's Joint Neighbourhood Development Plan

Following on from the questionnaire which nearly 80% of residents completed, Dr David Nicholson, our planning consultant, said at the last meeting in January that he would produce a 'Housing Delivery Report'. This will show how the two parishes of Aconbury and Little Birch can achieve the required increase in new dwellings.

David says that his work on the Neighbourhood Development Plan has been proceeding behind the scenes for the past six weeks. Without realising, some of you may have seen our planning consultant out and about, tramping the lanes and byways, busy assessing the special distinctive character of both parishes. He will also be taking into consideration the many comments and views expressed in the questionnaire.

His report will be considered and discussed at a meeting of the Steering Group on Wednesday 8 March at Little Birch Village Hall. Dr David Nicholson will attend a meeting a week later on Wednesday 15 March at Little Birch Village Hall starting at 7pm.

Any resident who has not yet attended a Steering Group meeting would find this a very interesting meeting as his report will form the 'blueprint' for the Neighbourhood Plan itself. All are very welcome.

For more information and to be kept up to date, or have notification of future meetings please contact Sophie Glover, Clerk to LB&A NDP Steering Group - littlebirchpcclerk@hotmail.co.uk

The family of Roger Thomas (26/5/22-31/01/17) would like to thank friends and family for the support during their recent loss. Roger, loved nothing better than a good chat with neighbours who phoned or popped in to see him, so it has been a comfort that this has continued.

Born and brought up with brother Tony in Risca, Monmouthshire, Roger studied for an engineering degree in Cardiff

In 1944 he qualified as an RAF pilot in Rhodesia, and as war ended was posted to RAF Little Rissington where he met WAAF Edna Evans who was in the meteorological office.

After finishing his studies, Roger and Edna married on 7 July 1951 at St Thomas Church, Swansea, Edna's home, where Roger struck up a long-lasting friendship with Brother-in-Law Glyn Evans.

Following their wedding, Roger and Edna moved to Cardiff, where Roger worked as a civil engineer in the City Hall.

21 November 1953 - a special day for Roger. Not only did Cardiff beat the All Blacks but his first daughter Margaret was born.

His career instigated a move to Stevenage, where his daughter Sian was born, and then on to Weston- Super-Mare.

In 1962 the family moved to Hereford when Roger took up the position of Deputy City Surveyor at the Town Hall, before moving to the Welsh Water Authority as Operations Manager with responsibilities throughout the Beautiful Wye Valley. In Hereford they reacquainted themselves with several contacts from Risca, developing some very happy friendships.

In 1977 Roger and Edna moved to Kingsthorpe and made a special group of friends when Edna joined the WI, and the husbands joined in the social circle.

In 1982 Roger retired – which he thoroughly enjoyed. He had time to enjoy his family, especially when his adored Grandchildren Belle and Nick came to stay on their 'own holidays'.

Roger and Edna happily celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in July 2016.

Roger was involved in the community, joining Edna in delivering meals on wheels 'to the old people' for over 30 years until 90 years of age.

He was treasurer of the gardening club, and printed the village newsletter for many years.

Roger was a proud member of the Institute of Advanced Motorists for over 30 years, taking his final Advanced Motorist test at 92 years before giving up driving for health reasons at 93.

Until Christmas 2016, Monday lunch time saw Roger at the Black Swan in Much Dewchurch for a pint of bitter shandy ("more shandy than bitter") where he thoroughly enjoyed putting the world to rights and the banter with 'the Monday Club'.

Roger was in and out of hospital since Christmas but he eventually died on 31st January. Both Margaret and Sian have been a tower of strength to their parents over the years and particularly over the last 12 months.

We send to Edna and her family our deepest sympathy.

The death of Mrs. Joyce Wilden is also sadly noted.

Joyce was born 77 years ago at Hole in the Wall, near Ross on Wye. Her parents had a small holding and she was at home with cows, pigs and fruit trees from which cider and dairy produce was made. Tragedy struck the family as her moth Donations in memory of Roger were given to ' Little Princess Trust' and it was fitting that light refreshments were served at the Black Swan, Much Dewchurch. er died when she was just 6 years old and she and her brother, Albert, were brought up by her father.

After schooling, Joyce took a job at Woolworth's in Hereford where she met John and they started courting.

John was involved in a very serious motorbike accident when his pillion passenger was killed and John was in a coma with many broken bones. Joyce said that she loved him so much that even if he was confined to a wheelchair, she would push him everywhere! John was made of stern stuff though and he pulled through and walked again and worked hard all his life.

Once the recovery was well underway, plans were made for the wedding and they were married in 1959 and lived in the Almshouses at Weston under Penyard. In due time, Michael, Chris and Heather were born and by this time the family had moved to Austena in Little Birch Road.

Joyce set about making the new bungalow a home, filled with happy memories and times. She worked as a child minder, in the early years and then once the children were more or less independent, she went to work for the Council as a 'home help' and was much loved in the area. In the early days she cycled in the area and later graduated to a moped. She loved having children around not only her own three but others from the village would drop in for a cake or welsh cake.

Joyce was blessed with 'green fingers' and she was always in the garden whenever time permitted.

She always had a well stocked garden with vegetables and flowers in abundance.

Joyce always made her house a home and when the children left home to find new partners of their own and she loved having the grandchildren to visit and made sure that Daniel and Olivia and Simon, James and Samuel were well entertained. When John retired from his truck stop at Allensmore, Joyce and John would go off with a packed lunch and flask to the river in Ross or to the Forest of Dean.

Chris came back home to live in 2009 and Joyce and John provided him with space where he could be and it provided a place of security in a time of trouble.

When John died in 2014, things changed again when Joyce was diagnosed with cancer. Chris looked after her so well but died in 2016. Michael and Heather in turn slept at home to keep an eye on Joyce. When there was no further worthwhile treatment, Joyce was cared for by the Hospice at Home Service and was visited by neighbour, Jenny Caton, twice a day to give her breakfast and lunch. She had given her life and love to her family and was blessed with no pain in the last few weeks. She had been well looked after by the Surgery doctors.

Her funeral service was held at the Crematorium on Friday, Feb. 17th. conducted by Rev. Preb. Mark Johnson from whose address these notes are duly acknowledged. Donations in memory of Joyce were given to St. Michael's Hospice.

*****

It is with great sadness that we record the untimely death of Ted Suckling of Wormelow. We send to Shirley (nee Crum) and her family our deepest sympathies.

History talk on Brian Hatton's farm paintings to be given by Rob-in Thorndyke on Thursday March 30th in Little Birch Village Hall. More details in April newsletter

As mentioned in the last newsletter, the defibrillator has been purchased, and discussions are now underway as to where exactly to place it on the outside of the village hall. The Parish Council's preference was to have it on the wall near the notice board at the front of the building, or, if not there, at least to make sure that it is well sign posted from the car park.

The next Parish Council meetings are on:- 1st March and 5th April, all at 7.30pm and all parishioners are very welcome to attend. Agendas are posted on the Parish notice board at least three days in advance and are also on our web site.
